Dear Sir:

I have yours of the 25th ~~instant~~, in relation to the cast of a model for an Indian medal. I am not able to say that this work of art strikes me at all favorably. Where is the necessity of stretching the plow, the Indian and the horse in a string across the face of the medal, and why are they all placed at the front of the house, I think your idea about the school children a very good one.

I fail to recall the object of this medal and wish you would give me some idea of the purpose of it, the authority therefor, etc.

Yours truly,

John W. Noble,
Secretary.
